Supporting Documents *

You must upload:

- A photograph of yourself
- Copy of your exam results

Please note that if you are considered for 6th form, you will need to submit a School Reference Form completed by a senior member of staff of your school and a copy of your school transcript. A copy of the School Reference Form is located on the website. Both documents will need to be submitted in a sealed envelope. This is only needed if your name appears on the selection list for consideration. Acceptance to 6th form will only be given pending the results of an interview with the school's admissions team.

As an external Champion student, please note that your name appearing on the list of successful applicants is not a final notice of acceptance and is only a notice that you have been short listed for consideration. Acceptance to 6th form will only be given pending the results of an interview with the school's admissions team.
